Tourism Brantford invites you to participate in a
FREE, FUN, INTERACTIVE
Breakfast Networking Event featuring Jeopardy!

When: September 30, 7:30 a.m. - 9:00 a.m.

Where: PC Museum, 13 Alma St. Brantford

RSVP by Sept. 25 to: mstephens@brantford.ca

Coffee, tea, juice, muffins, etc will be available.

This event is open to anyone in the community who is looking to connect with other local businesses and attractions.

Following a marketing-themed version of Jeopardy, there will be time to discuss developing reciprocal partnerships with other attendees. This could mean bundling attractions together to make a package deal for visitors, or offering dollar off coupons if you visit two participating local attractions. If you don't charge an admission fee, there might be opportunities to partner with a local business to save on advertising costs. The ideas are endless!
