WHAT'S A YOUTH COUNCIL?

A Youth Council is a group of active youth leaders coming from diverse backgrounds, from all corners of Brantford. Youth Council members work closely with Brantford's Youth Coordinator to ensure that youth issues are part of the City's agenda, identify priorities for youth, and plan events for youth in Brantford.

WHAT'S IN IT FOR A YOUTH COUNCIL MEMBER?

- community service hours
- fun and exciting opportunities to represent local youth
- a chance to plan and implement programs and events for area youth
- meeting new people
- being a part of something that has never been done before

POTENTIAL PROJECTS

- planning special events
- planning programs for youth
- development of a youth web site and/or newsletter
- coordination of Youth Week – the first week of May!
- community special projects
- planning for a skate park and youth park
- planning for a youth centre

THE CHALLENGE

If you want the situation in Brantford to get better, it's up to you to make things happen! We encourage you to come together and represent all your peers and make Brantford a better place for youth to live.
