BOARDS - ADVISORY COMMITTEES DUTIES - FUNCTIONS

for the direct management of staff, expenditures and budgets.

26.1.3 Sub-committee - defined

“sub-committee” means a body created by a board or advisory committee that reports directly to the board or advisory committee to assist it in fulfilling its mandate.

26.1.4 Member - defined

“member” means a member of a board, advisory committee, or sub-committee.

26.1.5 Members of Council - defined

“members of Council” include the Mayor, unless the context requires a different interpretation.

Article 2
GENERAL PROVISIONS

26.2.1 Intent - to provide a common framework

This Chapter is intended to provide a common framework for the organization of the boards and advisory committees described in the Schedules. Provisions which are specific to particular boards and advisory committees shall be contained within the Schedules pertaining to each such board or advisory committee.

26.2.2 Terms - provisions - Schedules to govern

In the event that the terms and provisions contained in a Schedule are inconsistent with the main body of this Chapter, the terms and provisions of the Schedule shall govern to the extent of any inconsistency with respect to the board or advisory committee described in the Schedules.

26.2.3 Schedules - to form part of Chapter

The Schedules are an integral part of this Chapter.

26.2.4 Applicable to boards- advisory committees- listed

This Chapter only applies to the boards and advisory committees which are described in the Schedules, and does not apply to any other bodies.

26.2.5 Creation - amendment - dissolution

Boards and advisory committees may be created, altered or dissolved by adding, amending or deleting Schedules to this Chapter.

26.2.6 Amendment - format

For the purpose of achieving and maintaining consistency within this Chapter and its Schedules, Schedules and amendments to Schedules to this Chapter shall be drafted using the prescribed format and shall be approved by the Clerk and Solicitor before presentation to Council.

26.2.7 Conflict of interest - applicable to all members

All members of boards and advisory committees shall comply with the same rules that are applicable to members of Council pursuant to the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007

26.2.8 Powers and authority - set out

Unless and to the extent otherwise specified in this Chapter or in the provisions of the applicable Schedules, all boards and advisory committees shall have the following powers and authority:

- (a) the ability to create sub-committees from among their members;
- (b) the ability to receive delegations from the public;
- (c) the ability to schedule their own meetings;
- (d) the ability to obtain assistance from professional staff in other City departments, where such assistance is necessary and is obtained through the administrative department identified pursuant to Section 26.2.18 (f); and,
- (e) the ability to establish procedures for the conduct of meetings if not in conflict with any requirements of this Chapter or Chapter 15 of the City of Brantford Municipal Code. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007; By-law 109-2011, 12 September, 2011.

26.2.9 Sub-committees - creating - conditions

Boards and advisory committees may only create sub-committees which include members drawn otherwise than from among their members if:

- (a) The board or advisory committee has prepared a report to Council in which it has identified, justified and explained the need for outside members; and
- (b) Council has approved the inclusion of outside members in the sub-committee.

26.2.10 Sub-committees - membership - requirement

It shall be the general policy of the City that all sub-committees approved pursuant to Sections 26.2.8 and 26.2.9 shall, despite the inclusion of outside members, include at least one (and preferably more than one) member of the board or advisory committee which created the sub-committee, although Council may authorize a deviation from this policy if it concludes that it is necessary and advisable to do so in particular circumstances.

26.2.11 Meetings - scheduling - administrative support

In exercising their power and authority to schedule their own meetings, all boards and advisory committees shall have regard to staff resources and availability and shall only schedule meetings when any required administrative support is reasonably capable of being provided to such meetings.

26.2.12 Attendance - reports - confidential - to Clerk

All boards and advisory committees shall monitor the attendance of their members and shall provide a report to the Appointments

Committee on a confidential basis showing the attendance records for the members of the board or advisory committee during the preceding term. The said report shall be provided to the Clerk in sufficient time to allow him/her to bring it to the attention of the Appointments Committee during its consideration of appointments to boards and advisory committees. The report may include recommendations of the board or advisory committee in respect of the attendance of any member. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

26.2.13 Citizen - member - vacancy - appointment

A board or advisory committee may by resolution declare a citizen member position vacant and request that the vacancy be filled by the Appointments Committee if:

- (a) a citizen member misses three consecutive meetings without notifying the board or advisory committee; or
- (b) the citizen member's absence is excessive and is creating difficulties for the board or advisory committee in the carrying out of its business, by providing the citizen member with the board or advisory committee's written decision, a copy of which shall also be provided to Council and the Clerk, within seven days of the decision. By-law 37-2013, 22 April, 2013.

26.2.14 Chair - Vice-Chair - member of Council - prohibited

No member of Council shall serve as Chair or Vice-Chair of any board or advisory committee.

26.2.15 Chair - Vice-Chair - elected - annually – limitation

Boards and advisory committees shall elect a Chair and Vice-Chair annually, with the election of Chairs limited to two consecutive one-year terms.

26.2.16 Obedience to law - compliance with Council directions

All boards and advisory committees shall obey and comply with the requirements of any applicable laws, including municipal by-laws. Boards and advisory committees shall also obey and comply with the provisions of any direction which may be given by Council in the form of resolutions.

26.2.17 Addition of schedules - amendment

This Chapter may be amended from time to time by adding Schedules thereto.

26.2.18 Schedules - information requirements

The Schedules to this Chapter shall each include the following components, as a minimum:

- (a) the name of the board or advisory committee;
- (b) a concise statement of the purpose of the board or advisory

- committee;
- (c) the mandate of the board or advisory committee;
- (d) the composition of the board or advisory committee, including the lengths of terms of its members;
- (e) the reporting structure through which the board or advisory committee will report to Council whenever such reporting is required or permitted pursuant to this Chapter or otherwise; and
- (f) identification of the administrative department of the City which shall provide administrative and/or budgetary support to the board or advisory committee.

26.2.19 Schedules - other matters included

In addition to the required components, the schedules may include any other matter in relation to the board or advisory committee, or its activities, powers and authority, including provisions related to the repeal of previous by-laws and resolutions in respect of the board or advisory committee.

26.2.20 Transitional matters - moved toward completion

It is recognized that some transitional matters contained within the Schedules, such as adjustments to the composition of the boards or the creation of a staggered appointment system, may require time to become fully operational. Staff shall bring such transitional matters to the attention of Council when appointments are made, and shall move towards the complete rollout of any such provisions as soon as practicable. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

Article 3 MEMBERSHIP

26.3.1 Appointment - councillor terms

Where the terms are not prescribed by provincial legislation, the terms of Council appointments to boards and advisory committees will be at the discretion of Council. Generally, Council appointments will be made on an annual basis; however, Council may make appointments for a different term. The length of the term of the Council appointments will be identified in the respective Schedules. By-law 120-2010, 6 December, 2010.

26.3.2 Number of councillors - per board - committee

Council appointments to boards and advisory committees will generally comprise one councillor, but Council may from time to time appoint more councillors. The number of councillors appointed will be identified in the respective Schedules. By-law 120-2010, 6 December, 2010; By-law 116-2013, 18 November, 2013.

26.3.3 Committees - voting privileges - councillors - quorum

Members of Council appointed to advisory committees shall have voting privileges and their membership shall affect quorum, as outlined in this

BOARDS - ADVISORY COMMITTEES DUTIES - FUNCTIONS

Chapter. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007. By-law 96-2008, 7 July, 2008.

26.3.4 Boards - voting privileges - councillors - quorum

Members of Council appointed to serve on boards shall have voting privileges and their membership shall affect quorum as outlined in this Chapter. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

26.3.5 Councillor - no consent to serve

If no councillor consents to serve on any board or advisory committee, any position reserved for a councillor on the board or advisory committee will remain unfilled for the one-year term. In such circumstances, the size of the board or advisory committee shall be reduced accordingly for purposes of the determination of quorum. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007. By-law 96-2008, 7 July, 2008.

26.3.6 Mayor- ex-officio member - each board - committee

In addition to the membership as defined in the applicable schedule, the Mayor shall be an ex-officio member of each board and advisory committee. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

26.3.7 Appointed members - voting rights

All members appointed by Council to a board or advisory committee shall have full voting rights on the board or advisory committee, and only members so appointed shall have voting rights on the board or advisory committee. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007. By-law 96-2008, 7 July, 2008.

26.3.8 Terms - at the pleasure of Council

Even though members of boards and advisory committees may have been appointed for a specific term, all members of boards and advisory committees shall serve at the pleasure of Council and their appointment may be terminated at any time.

26.3.9 Appointment - terminations – recommendations

Appointments and termination of appointments to boards and advisory committees shall generally be made by Council upon the advice of the Appointments Committee of Council, however Council may consider such appointments and terminations without the advice of its Appointments Committee if it so chooses.

26.3.10 Appointment - not vested right

No member of any board or advisory committee shall have any vested right to appointment or reappointment to any board or advisory committee, but members are nevertheless eligible for and may seek any number of reappointments in accordance with the City's appointments policy.

26.3.11 Liaison - non-member unless appointed

Any person who serves as a liaison to any board or advisory committee shall not be a member of the board or advisory committee unless he/she is appointed by Council as a member of the board or advisory committee.

Article 4 QUORUM

26.4.1 Majority - required

A majority of the voting members of any of the boards and advisory committees described in the Schedules shall form a quorum for the transaction of business.

26.4.2 Mayor - ex-officio position - how calculated

In calculating the number of members on any board or advisory committee required to reach a quorum, the ex-officio position of the Mayor shall not be counted as a member of the board or advisory committee. Despite the foregoing, if the Mayor is present at any board meeting or advisory committee, his/her presence shall nevertheless be counted in determining whether the required quorum has been achieved.

26.4.3 Quasi-judicial role - members to hear entire matter

If any board is fulfilling a quasi-judicial role, the board shall ensure that each member of the board which commences hearing any matter shall hear the entire matter without additions, substitutions or other changes to the composition of the panel. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

Article 5 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

I (insert name of declarant) do solemnly promise and declare that I will truly, faithfully and impartially, to the best of my knowledge and ability, execute my duties as a member of (insert name of board or advisory committee) to which I have been appointed in this City, that I have not received and will not receive any payment, or promise thereof, as a result of my appointment, that I will disclose any pecuniary interest, direct or indirect in accordance with the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act, and that I will abide by all applicable Federal, Provincial and Municipal laws, including the City's Code of Conduct By-law while fulfilling my duties. I further promise not to reveal any confidential information which may come into my hands as a result of my duties, except in such manner as will comply with all of the rules and requirements of the City.

*Declared before me
A commissioner &c.*

Article 7 RECORDS - REPORTING

26.7.1 Records - minutes - approved - each meeting

Every board or advisory committee shall keep minutes of its meetings. Every meeting of each such board or advisory committee shall include the approval of the minutes of the previous meeting as an agenda item, and the approved minutes shall thereafter be forwarded to Council in a timely manner.

26.7.2 Recommendations - prepared - each meeting

In addition to the requirement of providing approved minutes to Council in a timely manner:

- (a) a summary of the recommendations made at each meeting of the board or advisory committee shall be prepared forthwith following each meeting in the form prescribed for same from time to time by the Clerk, and forwarded to Council; and
- (b) the circulation of board or advisory committee minutes to other bodies that may have an interest in issues discussed is encouraged. The foregoing shall not apply to in-camera or other confidential matters.

26.7.3 Issues referred to staff - report to Chair of committee

When issues are referred by Council to a board or advisory committee, they shall be referred to staff. Staff will seek input from the board or advisory committee, which will be noted in the staff report. A copy of this report will be provided to the Chair. By-law 178-2007, 17 December 2007.

26.7.4 Committee of the Whole - annual meeting

In addition to the requirement for an annual written report, an annual meeting of the Committee of the Whole - Operations and Administration will be held at which the Chair or designate of each board or advisory committee has the option of attending to highlight in person, the activities and accomplishments of the board or advisory committee for the past year and intended direction or projects for the upcoming year. By-law 129-2009, 14 December, 2009.

26.7.5 Communication - follow up - on decisions made

To keep the board or advisory committee informed, the staff identified pursuant to Section 26.2.18 (f) as the administrative support for each board or advisory committee shall follow up with the board or advisory committee on all decisions made by committee and Council on matters in which the board or advisory committee was involved and/or provided comment or advice.

26.7.6 Confidential matters - non-disclosure

No member of any board or advisory committee shall disclose any confidential matter except to staff of the municipality or to Council.

Article 8 MEETINGS

26.8.1 Meetings - open to the public

Despite the fact that the advisory committees and boards governed by this Chapter may not have a legal requirement to conduct their meetings in public pursuant to the Municipal Act, 2001, c. 25, each advisory committee or board governed by this Chapter shall conduct its meetings in public unless it is considering one of the matters set forth in subsection 239 (2) of the Municipal Act, 2001, c. 25.

26.8.2 Closed meetings - conditions

If the advisory committee or board is not required by law (other than this Chapter) to hold its meetings in public and it is considering one of the matters set forth in subsection 239 (2) of the Municipal Act, 2001, c. 25, it shall hold the portion of the meeting concerning such matter in the absence of the public.

26.8.3 All meetings - open - exceptions

If the advisory committee or board is required by law (other than this Chapter) to hold its meetings in public, it shall only proceed in the absence of the public if it is considering one of the matters set forth in subsection 239 (2) of the Municipal Act, 2001, c. 25, and has complied with the requirements of subsection 239 (4) of the Municipal Act, 2001, c.25, and the requirements of any other applicable law. By-law 178-2007, 17 December, 2007.

26.8.4 Public notice of meetings

Notice of regular and special meetings of boards and advisory committees shall be provided to the public in accordance with Section 15.15.5 of Chapter 15 of the City of Brantford Municipal Code. By-law 109-2011, 12 September, 2011.
