LODGING HOUSE
BUSINESS LICENCE APPLICATION
MUNICIPAL CODE CHAPTER 326 A-4

On November 18, 2013, City Council passed a revised Business Licensing bylaw.

As a result of this bylaw, the annual expiration date has been changed from December 31st to March 31st.

A few key highlights of the changes in Business Licensing bylaws are as follows:

- The establishment of a late fee for failing to renew your Business licence prior to the expiration effective April 1st Annually
- Creation of standard application requirements including the addition of the following:
 - Every application for a licence shall contain all of the following information:
 - the name of the applicant, along with a copy of the applicant's identification;
 - if a corporation, a copy of the constating documents of the corporation and a copy of the master business licence of the corporation;
 - a brief description of the premises used for engaging in or carrying on of the business, including:
 - if a building, the description shall contain the address and a description of the building or such part of it as is to be used for the business;
- Definition improvements and changes to the Exception section have occurred and are as follows:
 - "lodging house" means any building or portion thereof containing one or more lodging units and which may contain a dwelling unit in addition to the lodging unit(s);
 - "lodging unit" means one or more rooms designed or intended to be used for sleeping accommodations provided to five (5) or more persons in return for remuneration or for the provision of services or both, and which may contain washroom facilities or kitchen facilities, but not both, and shall not include a dwelling unit
- This Schedule shall not apply to the following:
 - (a) hotels, motels, and resorts;
 - (b) hospitals, nursing homes, hospices, homes for the young or aged, retirement homes, correctional homes, crisis residences or other institutions that are licensed, approved or supervised under any act, including any regulation thereunder, of the federal or provincial government; or
 - (c) group homes that are licensed under a provincial or federal statute.
